Day 1. Arrival in Madrid

Welcome to Spain! Upon arrival, you make your own way to the hotel. If you arrive early, we suggest you can visit on your own the Madrid de los Austrias, a unique area of Madrid with numerous palaces, monuments and historic buildings of both Renaissance and Baroque or you can visit some of its famous neighbourhoods, to experience modern and bohemian areas, the most traditional area, or elegant areas, where you will find "La Milla de Oro", one of the best areas for shopping. You can visit places like the Retiro Park, see a sunset from the Debod Temple or have a cocktail from one of the trendy terraces of the city, or visit Palacio Real of Madrid. Overnight in Madrid

Day 2. Toledo and its three cultures

Breakfast at the hotel. Today we will visit the city of the three cultures, Toledo, where Christians, Muslims and Jews cohabited peacefully for centuries. We will go to the train station and take the 36 minute train ride to Toledo. There, we will meet Aurora, our local hostess. Together with our private hostess we will stroll through the cobblestone streets of the historic center, the spectacular Cathedral of Toledo, the oldest synagogue in Toledo, and view The Burial of the Lord of Orgaz, a masterpiece by El Greco. There are several options to enjoy the gastronomy of La Mancha on our own. Return to Madrid by train and enjoy free time for the evening.

Overnight in Madrid.

Day 3. Madrid - Córdoba

Breakfast at the hotel. We will go to Madrid Atocha station and take the two hour train ride to Cordoba. Hotel check-in and free time for lunch. Historically populated by Romans, Visigoths, Muslims and Christians, Córdoba showcases the notable architecture of each period. The entire historical centre is now a UNESCO World Heritage site which we will visit with our guide Ana. You will tour the Jewish Quarter and its picturesque corners and walk along the beautiful Calle de las Flores. Overnight in Cordoba.

Day 4. Córdoba – Montilla. Córdoba Gastronomy

In the morning our private driver will pick you up at the hotel to enjoy a morning of immersion in the world of wine and olive oil. Our friend Teresa will welcome you in a family-owned oil mill to enjoy a visit that will start in the olive groves surrounding the mill and will show you the process of elaboration of the "liquid gold" and you will taste some of their oils. You will then visit the oldest winery in Andalusia, which has been exporting its excellent wines to England since the 18th century. Free time for lunch in the village before our private driver will take you back to Cordoba. Last free afternoon in the city to enjoy shopping. Overnight in Cordoba

Day 5. Córdoba - Granada

Breakfast at the hotel. We will arrive at Cordoba station and take the two hour train trip to Granada, where we will make our way to the hotel. Check-in and free time for lunch. Spain is the birthplace of flamenco and, in the afternoon, we will enjoy a Flamenco dance masterclass in one of the well-known tablaos in the city centre and then we will stay to enjoy the show. At the end, we will have dinner at the tablao. Time at your leisure. Overnight in Granada.

Day 6. Granada and the unique La Alhambra

Breakfast at the hotel. We will depart to La Alhambra de Granada. Our local host, Eduardo will guide us through the finest jewel of Granada: the 13th century Alhambra. We will stroll among the palaces and gardens, learning about the stories and legends of the different people that inhabited it. The Nasrid Palaces with their meticulous architecture will be the highlight of our visit. In the afternoon, you are at your leisure. You could stroll through the picturesque Albaicín neighborhood, explore its many local craft stores, or buy some unique souvenirs, visit the impressive Cathedral of Granada or stroll through the lively Plaza Bib-Rambla. Overnight in Granada.

Day 7. Granada – Ronda - Sevilla

After breakfast, our private driver will pick us up at our hotel in Granada and take us to the Medieval Village of Ronda (2.5 hours). Our friend Marta will welcome us and guide a walk through the town, passing through streets and squares, churches and historic buildings. The geography splits the city in two when you pass by its Puente Nuevo and Puente Viejo. Ronda offers numerous options to enjoy the local gastronomy. Then, after lunch on your own, your private driver will pick you up to continue the journey to Seville. Free time at leisure. Overnight in Seville.

Day 8. Sevilla and its heritage

After breakfast, our private host, José Antonio, will guide us through the Historic Center of Seville and main icons of the city, such as the Cathedral and its Giralda tower, the Reales Alcazares and pass by historic buildings such as the Archivo de Indias, the Hospital de los Venerables or the Old Tobacco Factory. Afternoon at your leisure. Have a chance to savour some tapas at the city's many bars and cafés. Overnight in Sevilla's hotel.

Day 9. Tuesday Sevilla - Madrid

Breakfast at the hotel. Then, we will go to the Seville train station, where we will take the two hour and 40 minute train to Madrid. Upon our arrival at the station in Madrid, we will head to our hotel. Check-in and free time for lunch. Afternoon at your leisure. Overnight in Madrid

Day 10. Madrid - Departure

Breakfast at the hotel. At the scheduled time, you will go on your own to the airport, where you will take your flight back home. If you wish to extend your time in Spain, we will be happy to help you with your travel plans.
